

Advance your career with us!

Lufthansa Technical Training offers maintenance training programs that meet European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) and many National Aviation Authority requirements. More than 600 companies worldwide in the aviation, aerospace and maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) industry and in other aviation-related fields trust in our competencies. Be part of it!

Technical Instructor (m/f/diverse) for Type Training

Flexible and independent

To train aviation technical matters is your passion as well as your profession? Are you interested in working for Lufthansa Technical Training and support our team as a freelancer?

Then apply now!

These exciting responsibilities are waiting for you:

- Conducting of EASA Part-66 CAT B1/B2/C theoretical or practical type training
- Conducting exams and practical assessments according to EASA Part-147
- Worldwide training operation

You should ideally come along with the following qualifications and competencies:

- EASA CAT B1 and/or B2 Part-66 license of at least one of the following aircraft types:
Airbus A320, A330/340, A350, A380
Boeing 737, 747, 757, 767, 777, MD11
Embraer 170, 190
- Long-term experience in aircraft maintenance
- Experience as a trainer for EASA Part-147 type training preferable
- An AML for at least one of the above mentioned aircraft types is beneficial
- Excellent command of written and spoken English
- Formal proof of teaching skills (e.g. Train the trainer)

Ready for take-off?

If you feel addressed, do not hesitate to send us your application: type-resource@lth.dlh.de

We look forward to you inquiry!
Lufthansa Technical Training GmbH
www.LTT.de

Lufthansa
Technical Training